We will reply to your email with an estimate for labor to reupholster your piece and the amount of fabric that will be needed.

Please note that this reply will not be a binding contract; we want you to have an idea of the general costs and understand that the costs can change slightly depending on the condition of the piece and the expected outcome of the piece. For example, if some filler material needs to be replaced or new cushions are wanted, those changes could affect the cost.
